

How to sign-up for UniDays

Step 1: Go to <https://www.myunidays.com/GB/en-GB>

Step 2: Click 'Join Now'.

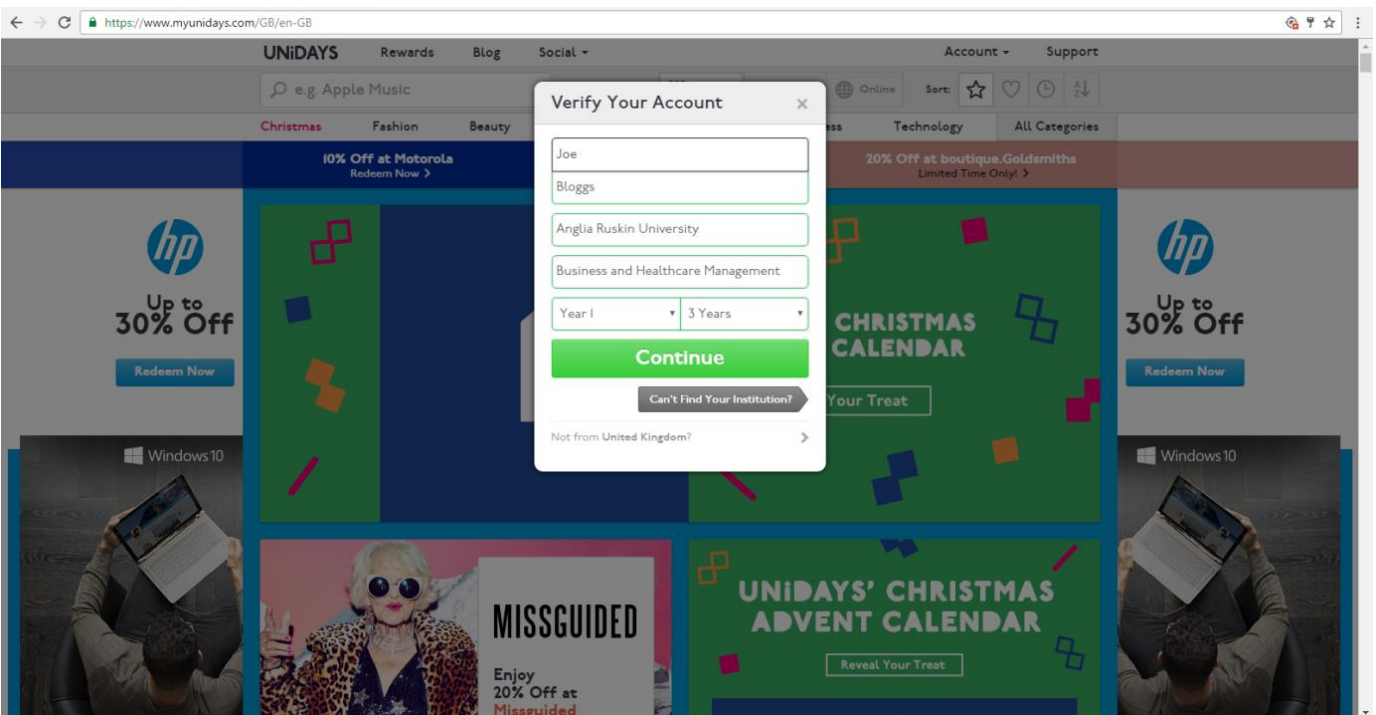

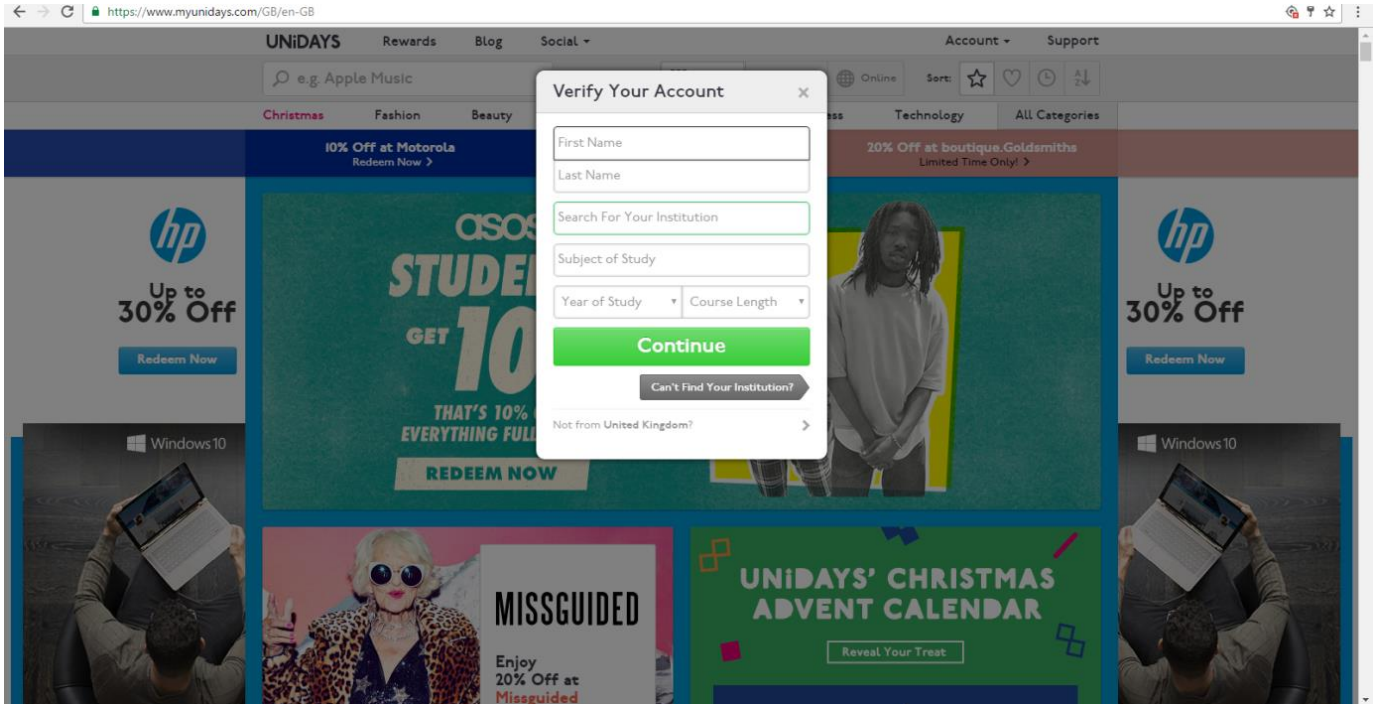

Step 3: Enter your email address, create a password, and accept the terms and conditions. Then click 'Join Now'.

Please note that the email address you enter can be your personal email address.

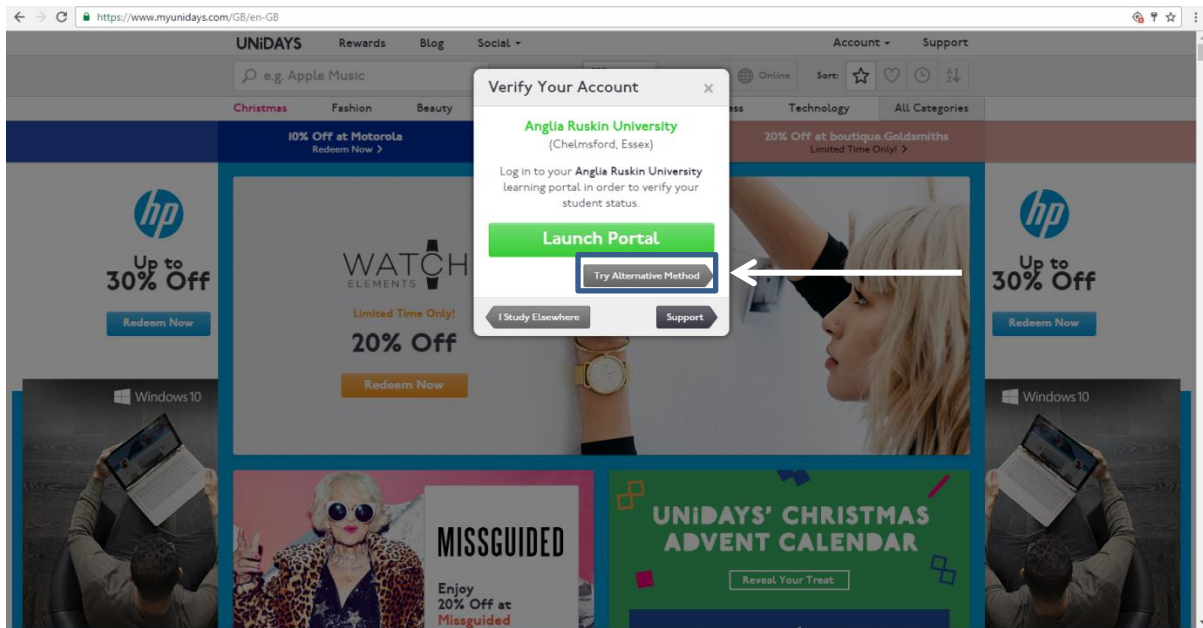

Step 4: To verify your account, please enter your first name, last name, your institution, subject of study, year of study and the course length. Please note that you will need to enter 'Anglia Ruskin University' as your institution. Please ensure the one selected is 'Anglia Ruskin University (Chelmsford, Essex)'. Then click 'Continue'.

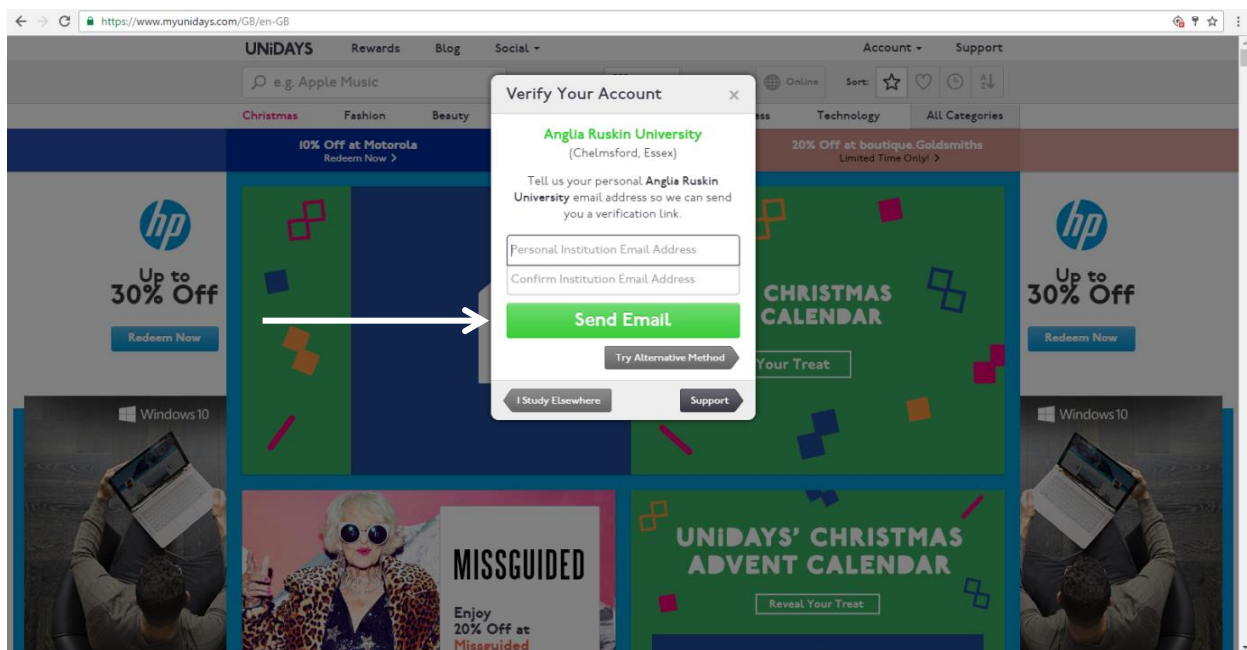

Step 5: A message will appear asking you to log in to the Anglia Ruskin University Learning Portal. Please click 'Try Alternative Method' instead.

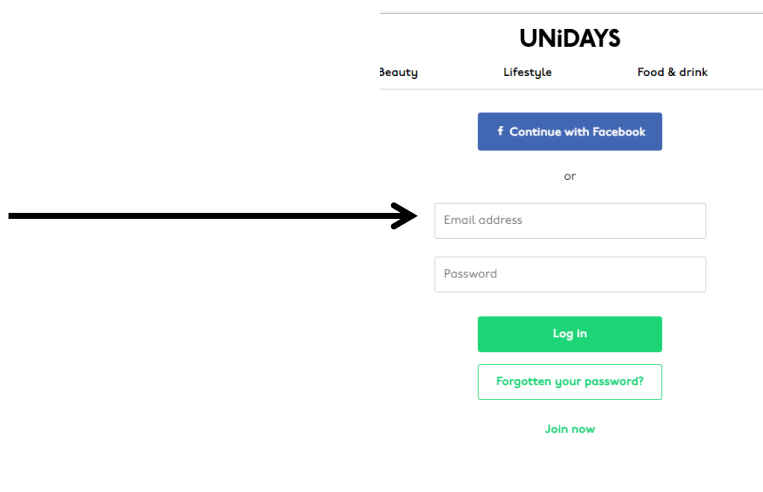

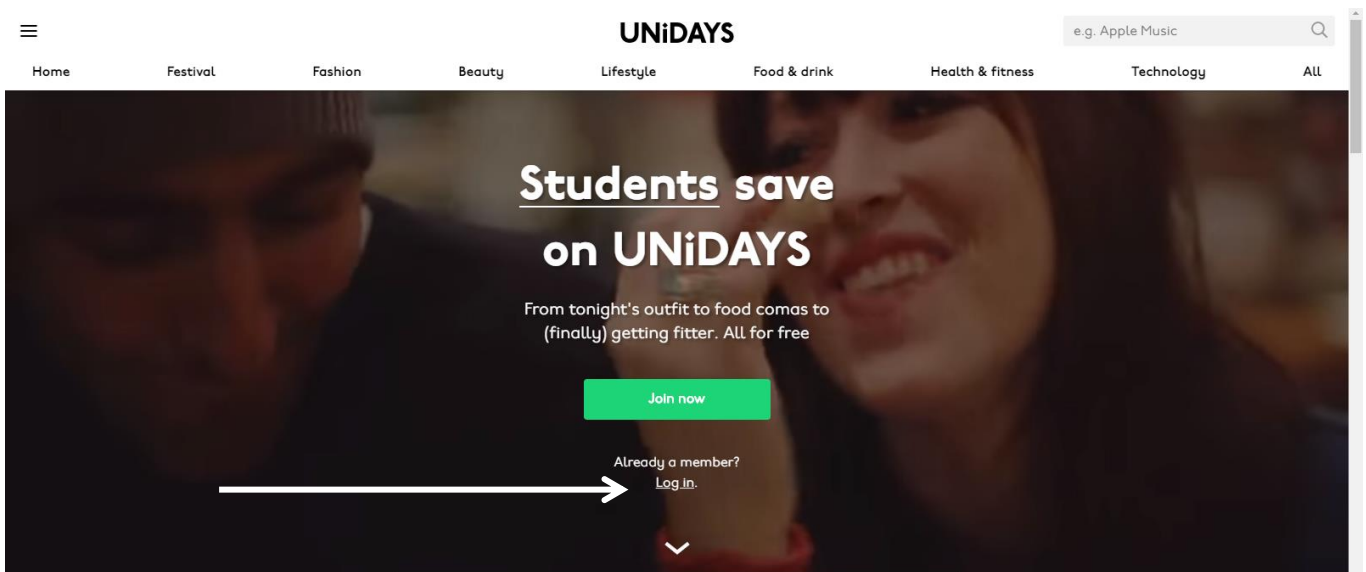

Step 6: Please enter your Anglia Ruskin University email address, confirm it and then click 'Send Email'.

Step 7: A verification link will be sent to your Anglia Ruskin email address. You will need to check your emails and follow the instructions contained within it. Please note that we would advise you to check your Junk/Spam folder, in case the email from the UniDays team gets sent there.

Step 8: Once you have been verified as a student, you should be able to login to UniDays. To login to the website, please go to the login link on the homepage and enter your email address (the one that you used to sign up with) and the password that you created. Click 'Log In'.
