Aegrotat means that the Awards Board has conferred an unclassified award because it believes there is evidence that you would have achieved the appropriate level of knowledge, understanding and skills had it not been for illness or other valid cause. You have the right to refuse an aegrotat award. We shall proceed on the basis that you will accept the aegrotat award unless you write to your Director of Studies to say that you wish to be assessed.

A module comprises one or more assessment elements, each of which has a qualifying mark and each result usually contributes to the overall module mark. Students who have not achieved the qualifying mark in each assessment element are deemed to have failed the module and are referred for re-assessment in the failed element(s), even if the aggregate mark for the module is 40% or higher.

¹ Edexcel grades are shown on your final transcript but will appear as undergraduate grades on your e-Vision record.
